Jewellery Consignment / Memo Agreement

Gems & Jewellery

Document type: Contract / agreement · Generated 27 Aug 2026

This guide explains what the tool produces, how to use the output, and what to watch for. The actual output (draft/report) is generated on the tool page.

Background

Draft a consignment/memo (goods-on-approval) agreement — placing jewellery with a dealer/store or taking it from a supplier — covering custody, risk, settlement, return and GST. Fill in the terms below.

Purpose of this tool & output

Place or take goods on approval safely

How the output is used

Use the draft to place or take goods on approval safely — ownership, settlement, returns and liability — reviewed by a lawyer.

Who receives it

The agreement is between the consignor and the consignee (jeweller/dealer); each keeps a signed copy.

Fees & charges

Stamp duty per your state stamp act; GST on consignment/memo stock is handled per the tax rules.

Who should vet it

A lawyer, to fix the ownership, loss-liability and settlement terms so memo stock is not silently your loss.

Important cautions

AI-generated draft; note GST approval-basis timelines and have a lawyer review before signing.
