

MGNREGA Wage / Job-Card Grievance Representation

Document type: Letter / notice · Generated 14 Oct 2026

This guide explains what the tool produces, how to use the output, and what to watch for. The actual output (draft/report) is generated on the tool page.

Background

Drafts an MGNREGA grievance — for delayed or unpaid wages (with the delay-compensation entitlement), a wrongly denied or cancelled job card, or a denial of work — as a reasoned representation to the Programme Officer and up the escalation ladder, to secure the legal entitlement.

Purpose of this tool & output

Draft an MGNREGA wage-dispute or job-card grievance representation to secure unpaid wages or job-card rights

How the output is used

Use the drafted grievance and the escalation ladder to secure the unpaid wages with delay compensation, the job-card right or the work entitlement, addressed to the Programme Officer and up the ladder if unresolved.

Who receives it

The Programme Officer or District Programme Coordinator; on escalation, the MGNREGA ombudsman, the social audit and CPGRAMS.

How to submit / file it

File the grievance with the job-card number, the facts and dates and the specific entitlement claimed, to the Programme Officer, and escalate where it is not resolved.

Who should vet it

No professional is needed; a persistent denial or muster-roll fraud may warrant help from a social-audit body or an advocate.

Important cautions

The Act entitles wages within 15 days with delay compensation, work within 15 days of demand or an unemployment allowance, and job-card rights; the grievance must cite the specific entitlement to move. This is a drafting aid.
