

Data Processing Addendum (DPA)

Legal

Document type: Contract / agreement · Generated 14 Oct 2026

This guide explains what the tool produces, how to use the output, and what to watch for. The actual output (draft/report) is generated on the tool page.

Background

Draft a Data Processing Addendum aligned to India DPDPA (and GDPR where relevant) — purpose limitation, security, sub-processors, breach-notification timelines, cross-border transfer and deletion — with the key obligations spelled out. Fill in the details below.

Purpose of this tool & output

Draft DPDPA/GDPR-aligned data-processor terms

How the output is used

Use the draft to add data-processor terms to a contract — a DPDPA and GDPR-aligned DPA between controller and processor.

Who receives it

The DPA is between the data controller and the data processor; it is signed alongside the main services contract.

Fees & charges

No separate fee; it is executed as an addendum to the main agreement.

Who should vet it

A privacy lawyer, to align the processing scope, security and breach terms with DPDPA and GDPR.

Important cautions

AI-generated draft; align with your actual data flows and have a lawyer review.
