

IP Assignment Agreement

Legal

Document type: Contract / agreement · Generated 14 Oct 2026

This guide explains what the tool produces, how to use the output, and what to watch for. The actual output (draft/report) is generated on the tool page.

Background

Draft an IP assignment agreement that vests work-product IP in the company — present and future assignment, consideration, moral-rights waiver, further assurance and warranties — under the Copyright and Patents Acts, with a note on where recordal helps. Fill in the details below.

Purpose of this tool & output

Ensure work-product IP vests in the company

How the output is used

Use the draft to make sure work-product IP vests in the company — an IP assignment from the employee or contractor to you.

Who receives it

The assignment is between the assignor (employee/contractor) and the company; each keeps a signed copy.

Fees & charges

Usually on nominal stamp paper; a registered assignment may be needed for certain registered IP.

Who should vet it

An IP lawyer, to make the assignment complete and effective, including moral-rights and future-works language.

Important cautions

AI-generated draft; a lawyer must review, especially for patents.
