Plantation & Commercial Crops

Document type: Licence / statutory filing · Generated 14 Oct 2026

This guide explains what the tool produces, how to use the output, and what to watch for. The actual output (draft/report) is generated on the tool page.

Background

Explains the registrations to export plantation produce — IEC, RCMC, commodity-board export registration, FSSAI and spice/quality approvals — with the sequence. Use it before exporting tea, coffee, spices or rubber.

Purpose of this tool & output

Get set up to export plantation produce

How the output is used

Use it to get set up to export plantation produce — the IEC and commodity-board/APEDA registration an exporter of plantation produce needs.

Who receives it

The Import Export Code (IEC) is issued by DGFT, and the export registration/RCMC by the relevant commodity Board or APEDA.

How to submit / file it

Apply for the IEC with DGFT and for RCMC/registration with the Board/APEDA using the entity and bank documents before you export.

Fees & charges

IEC and RCMC/registration fees per the rules; the registration is periodically renewed.

Who should vet it

An export consultant and the concerned authority (DGFT and the Board/APEDA), which verify the entity before registration.

Important cautions

Export registrations and destination-market quality and residue requirements vary by crop and market and change. Confirm the current requirements with the relevant board, DGFT and an accredited lab before exporting.
