

Printing / Packaging NDA

Printing & Packaging

Document type: Contract / agreement · Generated 13 Oct 2026

This guide explains what the tool produces, how to use the output, and what to watch for. The actual output (draft/report) is generated on the tool page.

Background

Draft a mutual non-disclosure agreement for a print/packaging context — protecting artwork, designs, formulations, pricing and client information shared between a converter and a brand or partner. Fill in the parties and scope below.

Purpose of this tool & output

Protect designs and client information

How the output is used

Use the draft to protect designs and client information — a printing and packaging NDA (mutual or one-way) — reviewed by a lawyer.

Who receives it

The NDA is between the print unit and the client/partner; each keeps a signed copy.

Fees & charges

Usually on plain or nominal stamp paper; the definition of confidential information (designs, artwork, specs) and the term are the key content.

Who should vet it

A lawyer, to check the scope, term and carve-out clauses before you share designs or client data.

Important cautions

AI-generated draft; have a lawyer review before signing.
