

Licence Fee & AGR Compliance Guide

Telecom, ISP & Cable

Document type: Licence / statutory filing · Generated 13 Oct 2026

This guide explains what the tool produces, how to use the output, and what to watch for. The actual output (draft/report) is generated on the tool page.

Background

Get a compliance guide to licence fee and Adjusted Gross Revenue (AGR) reporting for a DoT licensee — what counts as gross and adjusted revenue, quarterly statements and payments, SUC where relevant, and record-keeping to withstand a DoT audit. Fill in your context below.

Purpose of this tool & output

Report licence fee and AGR correctly

How the output is used

Use it to report licence fee and AGR correctly — what counts as revenue, the quarterly statements and the payment timelines.

Who receives it

The Department of Telecommunications (DoT), through the Controller of Communication Accounts (CCA).

How to submit / file it

File the quarterly Adjusted Gross Revenue (AGR) statements and pay licence fee and spectrum charges in the prescribed DoT/CCA formats within the timelines.

Fees & charges

Licence fee is a percentage of AGR (as notified), plus applicable spectrum usage charges; the tool itself carries no fee.

Who should vet it

A telecom finance/regulatory consultant or a chartered accountant familiar with AGR reporting.

Important cautions

AI-generated guide; AGR is litigated and evolving; confirm with a telecom finance consultant.
